Directoire Chair

Based on a 19th Century French design, the revolving Directoire Chair features an unusual and graceful over-scale scrolling and waisted back, with reeding at the base. The mahogany chair stands on fluted legs, the substantial arms supported by the baluster-shaped columns. The original Fauteuil de Bureau, attributed to Georges Jacob c. 1800, is in the Collection of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Getty in San Francisco.
